Dear Edith and all:

We arrived home safely Saturday afternoon none the worse for our trip, but Christmas day Lee caught cold and is in bed today, isn't this bad weather?

I want to thank and scold you for sending us those presents they are lovely but you shouldn't have done it. Baby received so many pretty things. We were over to the folks tuesday evening, I was quite surprised that they had spent Christmas with you. How you are better.

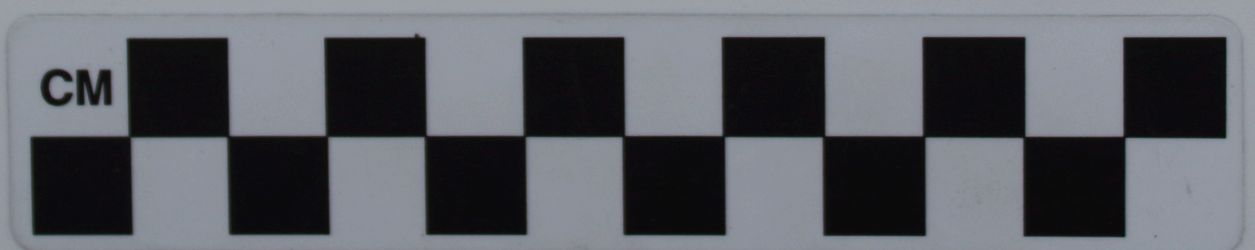
With love to all,


Alma.
